

SHEILA NEIDIG

Sheila was born in Cranbrook, British Columbia at the St. Eugene Hospital. She grew up in Marysville with 3 brothers and 3 sisters. Sheila has one daughter and 3 grandchildren - 2 grandsons and 1 granddaughter. Sheila is passionate about equality and rights for individuals with diverse abilities. She strives to help people stand up for their rights and stick up for themselves.

RAYMOND EDINGER

Raymond Edinger was born in Dawson Creek, British Columbia. He has lived in Cranbrook, B.C. for 12 years and has been a member of the Self Advocates of the Rockies Group Society ever since. Raymond loves music. One of his favourite genres of music is rock and roll. He loves to listen to music and share his passion with others through his monthly virtual event "Ray's Retro Friday Night Music." Raymond also loves to travel. With the REALM Rovers and the Self Advocates of the Rockies Group Society he has travelled around the world to places including Las Vegas, England, Portland and California.

MEET THE SELF ADVOCATES OF THE ROCKIES GROUP SOCIETY AND FALL INTO FALL CONFERENCE PRESENTERS

KIMBERLY EARL

Kimberly is 29 years old. She likes to travel a lot; during May long weekend she likes to go to an anime convention in Calgary called Otafest. She has gone to the convention since 2007. Kimberly has been cosplaying since 2009.

LYNNETTA BEINGESSNER

Lynnetta has chosen something near and dear to her heart as her inspirational topic, her family. Lynetta has felt even though this last year has been challenging for everyone, her family has shown nothing but support, care, and love to one another. Lynnetta is very proud of her family for all of their accomplishments, even though they may not come easy. She is very proud to be the Auntie to 33 nieces and nephews, which she is not afraid to brag about. Please join Lynnetta during her presentation to find out more about why her family is her inspiration.

JONATHAN RIGHTON

Jonathan comes from Kimberley, British Columbia located in the southeast part of the province. He is a well-known photographer on an amateur level, but according to his local, regional, and international following, he has the eye of a professional. His number one inspiration to his passion and talent comes from his belief in God, because it is God's creation in full vibrancy that gives Jonathan a sense of joy and peace. Jonathan's photography has been shared on TV, in photo contests, and even internationally, primarily in Ireland. If you would like to hear more and get inspired by his story along with his fellow Self-Advocates of the Rockies, be sure to join them on Friday, August 27th on Zoom from 10:00 am - 3:15 pm MST (9:00 am - 2:15 PST) for their "Fall into Fall, but Let's Get Inspired" conference.