RIGHTS VS. RISK

October 28, 2026

9am-12pm PT/10am-1pm MT (Online)

This presentation explores the balance between rights, autonomy, dignity, and safety for people with developmental disabilities. It focuses on understanding behaviours of concern and using person-centred, strengths-based approaches that support choice and quality of life.

Participants will learn to:

- Recognize how risk concerns can lead to overprotection or restrictive practices
- Understand the function of behaviours of concern
- Develop person-centred and least-restrictive supports
- Apply ethical decision-making, supported choice & positive risk-taking
- Balance duty of care with self-determination and meaningful participation

TEACHING THE TEAM: ABA STRATEGIES FOR EFFECTIVE STAFF TRAINING

November 25, 2026

9am-12pm PT/10am-1pm MT (Online)

This presentation explores how Applied Behaviour Analysis (ABA) principles can make frontline staff training more practical, engaging, and effective. Participants will learn evidence-based strategies for building staff skills, confidence, and consistency.

Participants will learn how to:

- Modify instruction to support individual learning needs
- Use modelling, rehearsal, prompting, and feedback
- Apply reinforcement to strengthen learning
- Use competency-based training to build and maintain skills
- Support the transfer of learning into everyday practice

ROLLING OUT BEHAVIOUR SUPPORT AND SAFETY PLANS

December 16, 2026
